NOTE: The U.S. Department of Homeland Security announced in the November 24, 2008 press release, the new information requirements on maritime cargo destined for the United States. The Importer Security Filing and Additional Carrier Requirements interim final rule will require maritime cargo carriers and importers to submit additional data to U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) before vessels are permitted entry into the country.

This does not replace any other security/customs form required. This information provided is a guide and subject to change by U.S. Customs and Border Protection.*
